A River of Peace · Day 1

Day 1 Experience

---

I visited the Sangu River on the first afternoon in Thanchi.

The clear water and peaceful environment made me feel calm and completely relaxed.

Taking a boat ride was one of the best decisions of the trip.

"The whole world seemed to slow down just for us.

I had never felt so peaceful in my entire life."

Nafakhum Waterfall — The Big Adventure

Day 2: The Trek

After a boat ride to Remakri, we trekked through the jungle.

The path was steep and muddy — but the greenery made it enjoyable.

"When I finally heard the roar of the waterfall, all the tiredness disappeared instantly.

It was powerful. Breathtaking. It was worth every step."

My Favorite Memory

A Day to Remember

The Moment I Remember Most

---

Standing at the edge of Nafakhum Waterfall was the best moment of the entire trip.

My friend and I just stood in silence, letting the mist hit our faces.

Neither of us said anything. We just smiled.

"That moment of silence was louder than anything. Pure happiness."

What I Learned

---

"I went for the adventure. I came back with something more — a clearer head and a deeper appreciation for simple things."

Hard paths lead to the best views

The trek to Nafakhum was not easy. But when I heard that waterfall, none of the difficulty mattered. It was worth every step.

Nature resets the mind completely

I did not expect the hills and river to affect me so much. Standing by the Sangu, I felt more at peace than I had in a very long time.

Some moments deserve to be remembered

This trip forced me to slow down, look around, and actually feel the place I was in. I want to do that more in life.

Thank You
