Sangu River — A River of Peace

Day 1 · December 20, 2025

Day 1 Experience

I visited the Sangu River on the first afternoon. The clear water and peaceful environment made me feel completely calm and relaxed.

Taking a boat ride was one of the best decisions of the entire trip. The green hills on both sides made every minute magical.

"The whole world seemed to slow down just for us. I had never felt so peaceful in my entire life."

Nafakhum — The Waterfall Adventure

Day 2 · December 21, 2025

Day 2: The Trek

After a boat ride to Remakri, we trekked through the jungle. The path was steep and muddy — but the greenery made it enjoyable.

At 2:00 PM, I finally reached Nafakhum. The waterfall was powerful and breathtaking.

"When I heard the roar of the waterfall, all my tiredness disappeared. It was powerful. Breathtaking. Worth every step."

My Favorite Memory

The Moment I Remember Most

A Day to Remember

Standing at the edge of Nafakhum Waterfall was the single best moment of the entire trip.

My friend and I just stood in silence, letting the mist hit our faces. Neither of us said anything. We just smiled.

"That moment of silence was louder than anything. Pure happiness."

What I Learned

"I went for the adventure. I came back with something more — a clearer head and a deeper appreciation for simple things."

Hard paths lead to the best views

The trek to Nafakhum was not easy. But when I heard that waterfall, none of the difficulty mattered. It was worth every step.

Nature resets the mind completely

Standing by the Sangu River, I felt more at peace than I had in a very long time. Nature has a way of making everything better.

Some moments deserve to be remembered

This trip forced me to slow down and actually feel the place I was in. I want to carry that habit into everyday life.

Thank You

for your attention!

*"Thanchi is not just a place.
It is a feeling."*
